

Primary school teacher | Al-Hikmah Kids Academy

About us

An Islamic Kids Academy which caters to the Islamic needs of a child, nurturing and fostering the child to be a practicing Muslim

About the role

We are searching for a supportive, enthusiastic online teacher to fulfil our students' educational and moral requirements with an Islamic purview. The online teacher's duties include formulating and delivering lessons that are conducted virtually while placing the maximum emphasis on Islamic value. You will also be required to allot homework, grade assignments and quizzes, and report on students' progress.

Responsibilities

- Establishing and maintaining online classroom environment that are safe, engaging, and adhering to Islamic ethics
- Creating lesson plans for the subject that incorporate all aspects of learning, including content knowledge, communication skills, and critical thinking skills
- Tracking student progress and providing feedback and guidance on areas of improvement over time
- Resolving conflicts or behavioural issues that may arise in the classroom with solutions prescribed by Islam. Report to management in case unable to resolve by themselves
- Using a variety of resources and presentations to create engaging lesson plans that align with the curricula being taught in the virtual classroom
- Formulating quizzes at the end of each chapter and preparing exam question sheets at the end of each term for the term exams

Location & commitments

- 1yr contract leading to permanent
- Fixed hours part-time
- Work from home

School Timings

Monday-Thursday: 8:45 A.M - 2:10 P.M UK; Friday: 8:45 A.M - 11:50 A.M UK

Candidate requirements

- A practicing Muslim female fluent in English
- Must have a computer/laptop with a good internet connection (smartphone wouldn't be sufficient)
- Skilled at preparing and creating presentation, worksheets and question sets to assess students learning aptly
- Up to date and overall knowledge of the subject applying for
- Skilled at teaching and managing young children
- A motivating and friendly personality with a creative mindset

Remuneration

- Paid monthly depending on experience, subject and number of classes per week

- Discretionary incentives and bonuses based on performance

Contact us to apply

In case you are a right fit for the job, please fill up the application form on our website
<https://www.alhikmahkidsacademy.com/teach-with-us>